CASA of Lewis & Clark and Broadwater Counties reserves the right to reject any applicant found to have been convicted of, or having charges pending for a felony or misdemeanor involving a sex offense, child abuse or neglect, or related acts that would pose risks to children or the CASA program’s credibility. Also, anyone refusing to participate in a background check to include: social security number verification, national criminal database, local and state criminal check, national sex offender registry and local child abuse registry. Background checks will be repeated for all staff and volunteers every four years from the date of the original check.

Can you think of any reason why a judge might be reluctant for you to serve as a CASA volunteer?

CASA of Lewis & Clark and Broadwater Counties reserves the right to make any checks deemed appropriate as to the suitability of anyone responsible for this confidential work. All information obtained will be held in the strictest confidence. The program does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, disability, or any other status protected by law or regulation.
